

Please fill out the application form below. Applications will be accepted until 10th December 2018.

You will then be contacted by the Programme Director in order to confirm your acceptance into the training programme (at the latest on 21th December 2018).

Hereby I declare my interest in the executive education programme:

“Owing and Investing in Art: Opportunities, Challenges and Risks” organized by the University of Luxembourg and its Competence Centre in association with Christie’s Education London.

Personal Information
		Phone
Last Name		Number
First Name		Street
Date of Birth		Postcode
Email		Locality
		Country
Prerequisites
Degree
English LEVEL (CEFR)

By signing and sending this application, I commit, if accepted, to enrolling in the Programme and paying the tuition fee.

Signature:

Contact:

Kerstin Fuhrmeister
art-finance@uni.lu
Project Manager
University of Luxembourg Competence Centre